WAIKOLOA BEACH RESORT

This spectacular natural setting is located in the heart of The Big Island's Sunshine Coast. Waikoloa's 1,350-acre resort hosts two championship golf courses, pristine beaches and an assortment of preserved cultural sites as well as The Kings' Shops and Queens' MarketPlace for shopping, dining and entertainment.

ASTON WAIKOLOA COLONY VILLAS

The setting is ideal for golfers. 168 one, two and three-bedroom villas stretch out along the 10th fairway of the Waikoloa Resort Beach Course. And there are 10 manicured championship and resort courses within a five-mile radius. This is a golfer's dream.

It's also a great place to bring the family. It's a gated community with two swimming pools, barbecue areas, children's pool, fitness center, jet spas and tennis on the property. It's a place where you and your family can relax and have fun.

Every suite offers stunning views of snow-capped Mauna Kea, the golf course, lava fields, and swaying palm trees.

Each villa is thoughtfully outfitted with a spacious, gourmet kitchen, private lanai, central air, cable TV, high-speed Internet access, a washer/dryer and access to all the facilities of Waikoloa Beach Resort.

The area abounds with world-class dining and shopping, relaxing day spas, a variety of historical Hawaiian petroglyph sites and the ancient King's Trail. Ocean activities are a short five-minute drive away.

This is an ideal place to bring the family or your favorite foursome. It's beautifully appointed with generous space to stretch out and relax.
