KAANAPALI BEACH

Three miles of glistening white sand, crystal blue ocean water, and the undulating hills of the West Maui mountains form a truly magical setting, complete with world-class shopping and dining, two championship golf courses and acres of manicured lawns and tropical gardens.

Shops, restaurants, golf, art galleries and whale watching are all conveniently located next door or nearby. This is a perfect home base for exploring the best that Maui has to offer.

The Whaler on Kaanapali Beach

Named one of the top 500 resorts in the world by Travel + Leisure, The Whaler on Kaanapali Beach boasts a premium setting on Maui's most beautiful white sand beach.

Premier oceanfront location, elevated gardens, granite picnic tables and a beachfront pool and jet spa give The Whaler a decidedly upscale appeal.

Deluxe accommodations range from studios to one and two bedroom condominiums with oceanfront, ocean view and garden view suites.

All suites include a fully equipped kitchen with microwave and coffee maker, cable TV, DVD player, free high-speed Internet access, and spacious lanais perfect for whale watching or cocktails at sunset.

Next door, the 65 shops and restaurants of Whalers Village are just steps away by private pathway. The Whaler also offers a heated pool, exercise facility, sauna, day spa and beauty salon and golf privileges at Kaanapali's two world-famous courses.

If you're looking for an exclusive, romantic getaway, or a quiet self-contained retreat with the family, we think The Whaler will meet and exceed your expectations.
